

SOME DAY YOU ARE GOING TO FRANCE

as Evansville Has Some Hundreds of Adopted Children Over There She Wants to Get Acquainted With

By ROSE RUDIN

Some day you are going to France. There are too many ties that bind to this smiling place of geography, history, and adventure. It is a fact that the ties that bind to this smiling place of geography, history, and adventure are too many to count. It is a fact that the ties that bind to this smiling place of geography, history, and adventure are too many to count.

Every American soldier has made conquest of French hearts. The governments have formed an alliance that does not seem possible to us, but even that bond is not the strongest incentive for Evansville citizens to make the journey "over there."

Evansville citizens will go across to their little French war orphanage which began in November and is nearly closed. It is that drive in the orphanage were adopted by citizens of Evansville and 125 in adjoining cities of Southern Indiana.

All of the French orphan's family are from the Seine and one region north of Paris. This will be the first time that Evansville citizens have been adopted by citizens of Evansville and 125 in adjoining cities of Southern Indiana.

At the head of Evansville's Pathway to France society were S. Stewart Orr, chairman, Mrs. Walter Leitch, secretary and L. C. Howell, treasurer.

The individual subscription committee for Evansville county consisted of Mrs. Frank Laughlin, Mrs. S. W. Cook, and Mrs. M. G. Goss, sent letters to that many citizens of Evansville containing the plan of the society.
