

THE MARRIAGE of Miss Priscilla Alden Weld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Weld, Brookline, Mass., to Charles A. Grosjean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grosjean, Brussels, Belgium, took place Tuesday in Emanuel Church, Boston, at high noon. The Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, retired bishop of Massachusetts, officiated, assisted by Rev. Phillips Endecott Osgood, rector of the church.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle with long veil and the bridesmaids were in pastel green tulle and carried peonies. The three flower girls wore long frocks of white flower-sprigged organdy. Robert Grosjean was his brother's best man.

Mrs. Grosjean, mother of the bridegroom, the former Miss Mabel Lahr of Evansville, wore a gray lace gown and blue hat trimmed with ostrich feathers. Mrs. Weld, the bride's mother, was in a tan linen and lace gown with large hat of pink.

The bridal couple will live in London for awhile before going to Brussels. The bride attended Beaver Country School, Le Pelouse Bex Les Bains in Switzerland and the Foxcroft School in Virginia. Mr. Grosjean was graduated from the University of Brussels and is a reserve second lieutenant in the Premier Regiment de Guides and a business engineer. He is the grandson of Mrs. A. P. Lahr, Cambridge Arms-works.

Among the guests at the wedding and reception were the bridegroom's aunt and cousins, Mrs. Irene Lahr Legeman and daughters, Miss Amelia and Mabel Legeman, and Mrs. Samuel L. Orr, Evansville, and daughter, Mrs. Albert O. Trostel Jr., Milwaukee, Wis.
