

WHEELER SCHOOL

By EARL WOODALL and
CHARLOTTE VEATCH

Miss Minnie Strange's room led Wheeler banking this week with $28.62. This makes the fourth successive week her room led.

Parent-teachers club met Wednesday in Wheeler gym. This was the last parent-teachers meeting that will be attended by our principal, J. S. Johnson. He leaves March 1, when he will be secretary of the chamber of commerce. Speeches were made by Merrill Wilson, Supt. L. P. Beneset, C. B. Enlow, Miss Lida Edwards and W. A. Carson. Mrs. E. E. Hoskinson and Mrs. Geisler rendered solos.

"Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm" and "Red Hot Dollars," with Mary Pickford, star in both pictures, will be shown at Wheeler auditorium, March 24.

Miss Strange's room lost three pupils when Frances Hook moved to Princeton; Marion Dunn, to Terre Haute and Agnes Crenshaw was transferred to Fulton.

The violin class, which meets every Tuesday, is making great progress under the supervision of Louis Schriber.

Many pupils are taking part in the afternoon gym classes conducted by Julius Doerter.

Peter Hagensicker is absent on account of scarlet fever.

Miss Minnie Strange's room was 100 percent in attendance both Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. E. L. House visited Wheeler Monday and gave the children a talk on "Minds."

The picture show Friday afternoon at 3:35 o'clock was a three-reel comedy.
