

William M. Chesters Will Visit Daughter at School in Florence

Go to Italy Next Friday

Other Travelers Go South, Come Home

MARION CHESTER, who has been at school at Miss Sheldon's in Florence since September, is already assured an antidote for that nostalgia which seizes expatriates in the spring. In just a fortnight, she will be seeing her parents, the William M. Chesters, E. Knapp st., and her younger brother, George, and spending her free-from-study weekends with them in Italy's beauty spots.

Mrs. Chester left Sunday for New York to attend a national board meeting of the Girl Scouts of America, of which she is a vice-president. Later in the week, she will be joined by Mr. Chester and George, and the three will sail for France Friday on the Europa. The family group will go directly to Florence, where Mr. Chester will stay for a little more than a week before returning here, but his wife and son will stay longer. Later in the spring, Marion's grandmother, Mrs. George P. Miller, and her aunt, Miss Isabelle Miller, will visit her.

Lausanne, Switzerland, will be destination for the H. A. Wagners, E. Newberry blvd., and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Wagner, N. Shoreland av., when they sail from New York on the Columbus March 26. The family party will leave here March 23.
