

County, State Dates Set for Women Voters

THE annual meeting of the Milwaukee County League of Women Voters at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the College Women's club lodge, and the convention of the state league May 28 and 29 at Draper hall, Oconomowoc, are the special events of the month for members of the organizations.

In addition to election of officers and reports of department chairmen, the county league has scheduled a talk on "Education Problems in Wisconsin" by Edward Doan, Madison, president of the American Association of Teachers of Journalism, and former press secretary to Gov. Goodland.

County Reports

He will be introduced by Mrs. Daniel W. Hoan, education chairman. Mrs. Douglass Van Dyke, president, will preside. Reports will be given by Mmes. W. A. Hambley, Wendell Phelps, Karl Bostrom, Holand Jefferson, Philip Marshall, R. F. Picken, Michael Sheridan, Jacob Mirviss, Harold L. Smith, Percy Teska, A. H. Woolfolk and W. A. Norris.

The state league convention will be a "work" session in the main, the major portion of the time being allocated to choosing a program of work for next year, and planning for increasing effectiveness in the local, state and national levels. Officers will be elected at the business meeting.

State Rally Speakers

Two speakers will bring information in their respective fields. Prof. Robert L. Reynolds of the history department of the University of Wisconsin will address the open dinner-meeting May 28 on "The First Year and the Work to Come." Mrs. Marc Law, Highland Park, Ill., member of the national league board, will speak the morning of May 29 on "The Competent Citizen."

National convention reports will be given at a round table led by Norris. Participating will be Mrs. Alf Gundersen, La Crosse; Mrs. Abraham Sigman, Appleton, and Mrs. William Gorham Rice, Madison. A drive to Rogers Memorial gardens has been planned for late afternoon of May 28 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clarence Binzel. Between the two business sessions May 29 there will be group luncheons for informal discussions of league activity.

Mrs. Harold E. Marsh, Madison, state president, will preside. Heading the convention program committee is Mrs. J. G. Crownhart, Madison. Mrs. Frank Clapp, Madison, is chairman of the nominating committee.
