

Skipper's Trim Their Sails for Yacht Contests

ALTHOUGH scrub races will be held early in June in preparation for late summer events, it is July and August that will be crammed with activity for the Pine Lake Yacht club. Pine Lake will be host to the second invitational regatta for cub class boats July 21, 22 and 23. Oconomowoc Lake club, which had the cub races last year, has been assigned the Class C regatta Aug. 3, 4 and 5.

All clubs in the Inland Lake Yachting association will be invited to enter the cub races, and entries from Oconomowoc, Lake Geneva, Neenah and Oshkosh are expected. Henry Harnischfeger, who last year watched while his older sister, Bettie, piloted the Flying Cloud, will be at the helm in the races this year. Wallie Kieckhefer, jr., has succeeded sister Nancy as skipper of Ke-Ke. Clifford Messinger, jr., Anders Friend, June Goes, Carl G. Haysen, jr., John S. Le Feber, Harry Foerster, Anne Pritzlaff and Kate Winkler will again take out their cubs.

Many new boats have been added to the Class C fleet at Pine lake. Peggy and Bill Kootz will sail their Ketchup IV, Marjorie Pritzlaff will pilot Hi-Ho and Edwin A. Gallun's Gnap has been succeeded by the trim Gnap II. Betty Alice Friend, who sailed Up'n-at-Em last year, will this year be at the helm of her new boat, What-a-Blow. Russell Wilcox will sail P-K III. Other veteran sailors with Class C craft are Philip G. Brumder, Jacob Nunne-macher, R. Goeres Hayssen, Betty Manegold, James B. Briggs, Marianne Elser and Elise Ott.

In the Class E fleet H. J. Nunne-macher's Avocet II will be succeeded by Avocet III. Albert F. Gallun, jr.'s, new boat has not yet been named. A. C. Swallow, jr., is the proud skipper of the new Carissima II, and R. Mackay Lynch will launch his Appul Annie III. Jack Briggs, Edward J. Brumder, Robert E. Friend, George G. Brumder and H. P. Brumder will sail their boats of last year.

James A. Friend, whose Mistral XIII is frequently seen on the lake; and Robert B. and Charles Winkler,
