Voters will open Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, when a business session will be held at the Athearn hotel.

Action will be taken on the various plans and suggestions presented to the convention gatherings of Thursday and today, and the final committee reports are scheduled to be presented.

TO PRESENT PAGEANT.

At 11 o'clock, an adjournment will be taken. The gathering will convene at the Oshkosh theater to witness the presentation of the Indian pageant, "Glory of the Morning," by an Oshkosh cast. The playlet will be produced as a part of the Indian affairs committee's educational program.

Mrs. Howard G. Nichols will play the title role of the presentation, and her supporting cast will be the same as for the previous successful presentations of the sketch at Menominee park. The pageant is open to the public.

FOR NEW VOTERS.

The new voters' sessions will be held in the forenoon, also, between the hours of 8:30 and 11 o'clock. Mrs.
Douglass Van Dyke, of Milwaukee, will preside.

There will also be a new voters' session from 2:30 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon. These gatherings are open only to new voters and their advisors.
