

Have You Heard? Albert Trostels Jr. to Give Dinner at Art Center Feb. 15

BY DOROTHY PARNELL

THE DINNER Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Trostel Jr., North Range Line Road, are giving on Feb. 15 at the Milwaukee Art Center should prove one of the most interesting events of the year. The dinner commemorates the 100th anniversary of Albert Trostel and Sons Co., and highlighting the affair will be the first viewing of the paintings Mr. Trostel commissioned Franklin Boggs to create of "Art in Tanning."

Mr. and Mrs. Trostel will have Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Kasten and Mr. and Mrs. Everett G. Smith assisting them. Their daughter, Louise, will come home from the University of Colorado for the dinner and Mr. Trostel's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Notz of Winnetka, Ill., will be among the guests.

The dinner is primarily a civic affair, and the guests will have an opportunity of seeing the paintings before they are sent on to New York, and other cities, where those interested in both tanning and art will see them. It's the first time in history that art, as such, has been involved in the tanning business and the exhibit should prove an exciting one.

dinner in the Crystall Ballroom of the hotel. During the cocktail hour members of the Auxiliary Bar Center Fund plan to sell flowers, the proceeds to help furnish part of the Bar Center building in Madison.

A luncheon is planned for Feb. 21 at the new Memorial Center with Mrs. Charles L. Goldberg presiding at the following meeting. There will be a tour of the center and the Ralston Crawford exhibit. Mrs. Goldberg has been appointed by R. E. An-ers and fathers of Holy Angels students. Jack Marchesi is in charge of refreshments (a Valentine motif is planned, we're told).

This year's cast of the secret production includes Thomas Byrne, James Caveney, Harold Neuman, Edward Rebholz, I. J. Fettig, John Kopmeier, Carl Knoernschild, Edward Vossman, Donald Hinske, Arthur Lenroot, Joseph Cvengros, Richard Smrz, Bernard Westfahl, Robert Dean and Frank Janutka.

The program is under the direction of Patrick Dougherty, chairman, and Sam Winkler, co-chairman. Musical background for the production will be furnished by W. J. Gelsheker, director of the Marquette University band.

Dance Days

A RASH of dancing parties

Day School and Milwaukee-Downer Seminary. This second "tri-school" dance will be held at Country Day.

A Valentine dinner-dance is planned for Feb. 15 by the Hi-Hatter's Dancing Club at Tuckaway Country Club when hosts and hostesses will be Messrs. and Mmes. Clifford Duffy, William Heuer, Karl Krug, Roy Norton, Charles Randall and Dr. and Mrs. Jack Gruender.

There's the big Junior League Valentine dance on Feb. 14 at the Hotel Pfister and on Friday night a dance will be given by the Ushers of St. Eugene's Parish, Fox Point. This "Sweetheart Ball," will be given at St. Monica social center, North Santa Monica Boulevard, with James Miner and Warren J. Strachota as co-chairmen.

The committee in charge includes Gary Lustig and Bill
