

Rose-Vurpillat Party Fetes Suzanne Wood

MISS Suzanne Wood was the guest of honor at a luncheon bridge this noon in the Indiana Club given by Mrs. Jay S. Rose and Mrs. F. J. Vurpillat. Miss Wood, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Wood Jr., 1806 E. Cedar St., will become the bride July 26 of Larry K. VanDusen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald VanDusen, 606 S. 31st St.

Pink roses and blue bubblehuck in a blue and white wedgewood bowl decorated the luncheon table. Wedgewood candlesticks and cupids completed the decorations.

Guests at the party included Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Van Dusen, Mrs. Robert Harwood, Mrs. Melvin F. Sheahan, Mrs. B. Ashenfelter, Mrs. Frederick G. Ensign, Mrs. L. S. Whitney, Mrs. Bud Taylor, Mrs. Thomas E. Bath Jr., Mrs. Duncan Campbell, Mrs. John Veodisch, Mrs. Lewis Cocho-vety, Mrs. Jerome M. Davey and Mrs. John F. Vurpillat, Miss Mary Jane Rayniak, Waukegan, Ill., the houseguest of Mrs. Rose, also attended.

Back From Canada.

Couple Wed On Sunday At Bremen

The Tribune's Special Service.

BREMEN—In a ceremony performed at 2 p.m. Sunday in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bremen, Miss June C. Sahlhoff became the bride of James F. Allen. Rev. Harold V. Schmidt performed the double-ring service before an altar decorated with vases of pink and white gladioli, palms and cande-

Clipped By:

library535

Wed, Aug 10,
2022