

When We Were Younger

Twenty Years Ago
From Press Files

An unnamed Evansville business man, who has already given $300 to the Public Health Nursing Association, increases his donation to $700, boosting total subscriptions to the fund drive to nearly $7500.

Thousands pack Monument Circle as presidential candidate Franklin D. Roosevelt speaks, blaming the G.O.P. for the depression.

A number of counterfeit coins, five, 25 and 50-cent pieces, are passed in the city.

The day of spectacular intercollegiate athletics has gone, never to return, a Butler University official declares in an annual report.

Manuel and Meyer Siegel assume control of the Chicago Bargain House, founded by their father here, and change the name to Siegel's.

A reception for Rabbi and Mrs. Milton Greenwald is held following services in Washington Avenue Temple, to which members and friends are invited.

Miss Anna Welcker, 1108 N. Baker-av, entertains her bridge club having as special guest, Mrs. Robert Kruse of Scarsdale, N.Y.

Mrs. Claude Ruston, 720 Covert-av, entertains in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Schneider of St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Asa Skeels and the honor guests are prize winners.

Mrs. Frank Baugh and Mrs. Nell Carter, 847 Washington-av, are visiting friends in Mt. Vernon, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Storck, 1517 Emmett-st, announce the birth of a daughter, Marilyn in Deaconess Hospital.

Miss Kendriek Orr, 605 S. First-st, leaves for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Trostel Sr., in Milwaukee, Wis.