The young people will be married on Jan. 3 at 8 o'clock in the evening with a reception following at the Milwaukee Country Club.

Miss Vogel, who is in Boston at the present time, will be home about Dec. 1 to complete wedding plans. Her sister, Mrs. Michael Hartmann Finnell of Calgary, Canada, with her husband will be here for the wedding and will be her sister's matron of honor.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray Mattern, Scarsdale, N. Y., and Sutton, N. Y., who will be here for the wedding.

Popular Spot

GROWING in popularity with Milwaukeeans more and more is Scottsdale, Ariz., where so many have been vacationing for years. While this season finds even more Milwaukeeans vacationing in this area, even more interesting are the number of them owning homes there.

Mrs. Jane Washburn Gallun has left for Arizona to occupy the new home she recently bought and with her handsome antiques and beautiful paintings is, with the assistance of Victor Williams, interior decorator, getting pretty well settled.

In addition to the Scottsdale home she has also purchased a country home here, the delightful home of Mr. Williams at Wales where she will spend her summers. In turn Victor also has bought a home in Scottsdale and will leave for there in about 10 days. He will be commuting back and forth with assignments here and in Arizona.

The George P. Blakneys are also building a small home in Arizona at Wickenburg, which Mr. Williams is "doing," returning here for only the summers.

The Robert G. Nelsons are building a home in Scottsdale where they have been spending their winters for some time. The home, which should be completed this winter, is a contemporary—Bermuda type and Mrs. Nelson will be using many of the antiques of her late mother's as well as her own; the decorating work being done by Mr. Williams, who will be one of their neighbors.

The John C. Pritzlaff Juniors have taken a house in Scottsdale and plan to make the Arizona spot their permanent home.

Mrs. H. Stuart Johnston and her children have arrived in Scottsdale from California where they lived briefly after leaving Milwaukee last spring and have taken a house. Likely, they too will make their permanent home in Scottsdale.

Home From East

MRS. Elise Ott Casper, North Stowell Avenue, is home from the East where she spent some time after entering her son, Timmy, in the Putney school at Putney, Vt.

While she won't be able to attend the "parents week" at her son's school over the long Thanksgiving Day holiday, her mother, Mrs. Walter S. Ott, will take her place. In addition to the school activities, Mrs. Ott will take her grandson to New York to see the sights and the theater.

Date Set

MR. AND MRS. Louis J. Matura of Scotia, N. Y., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Elaine, to Stuart Butler Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Smith, Martha Washington Drive.

The Milwaukee young man and his bride will be married on Nov. 15 in Schenectady, N. Y. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Wisconsin after finishing Wauwatosa High School. He also was on the teaching staff of the School of Engineering at the University the past two years. He is now in Linden, N. J., doing research and engineering laboratory work.

Miss Matura is a graduate of Pratt Institute, New York, and took additional work at State Teachers College, Buffalo. She has also been on the teaching staff at the University of Wisconsin where she is a candidate for her master's degree.

The young people will live in Elizabeth, N. J.

Engaged

MR. AND MRS. Edwin A. Martin, West Bend, announce the engagement of their daughter, LaVerne Clare, to Jack Holt Decker, Milwaukee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton H. Decker of Thayer, Iowa. The couple is planning a spring wedding.

PTA Council To Hear Illinois Crime Authority

THE Milwaukee City Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will have a business meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Wisconsin Avenue School. To give the main address will be Dr. Lois L. Higgins, director of the Illinois Crime Prevention Bureau. Her subject will be "The Parent's Role in this Changing World."

Dr. Higgins is a graduate of Mount Mary College. She organized, developed and conducted the first training program for policewomen in Chicago and she has also taught criminology at Loyola University.

Stars Say

By ESTRELLITA

For Friday, Nov. 7

WHILE A.M. aspects are on the mild side, this would be a good period in which to make plans for afternoon activities. More vigorous influences, which will prevail after noon, will encourage accomplishment in important matters.

If Friday is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that you can make considerable headway, occupationally speaking, during the next year.

A child born on this day will be practical, methodical and intensely loyal to family and friends.

G.U.G. Germania

The G.U.G. Germania No. 9 will hold a card party at 7:45 p.m. Friday at 3116 West North Avenue.
