On view at the center is art in diverse media from ancient Egypt to modern America. The collection is particularly strong in 19th and 20th century European and American art, including the decorative arts and the extensive Bradley Collection of Early Modern and Contemporary Masters.

The American "Ash Can" school and German Expressionism are also emphasized.

On continuous view are the Flagg Tanning Corp. Collection of Haitian Art and the von Schleinitz Collection of 19th century German paintings and Mettlach steins.

The collections also include the Prairie Archives, which has historic documents, furniture and building fragments primarily focused on the Prairie School of American architecture. The archives is accessible by appointment.
