Spectator Considered

The rather boring horsemanship classes, which always are of keen interest to the horse fancier, but which are prone to make the ordinary spectator a bit restless, will be run off in the morning, and the exciting hunter and polo classes will take place in the afternoon.

Social affairs in connection with the one day show include the luncheon to be given that noon at the Milwaukee Country club, the landowners' picnic immediately following the show, and the dinner dance that night at the club.
