

RECEPTION

Alfred Bader will sign autobiography

Alfred Bader (above), the millionaire who donated Herstmonceux Castle in England to Queen's University, will be the guest at a reception at Agnes Etherington Art Centre on Sunday. Bader will sign copies of his autobiography, called Adventures of a Chemist Collector. The works of art he has donated to Queen's will also be on display. The event will be held from noon to 2 p.m. Bader, who is now living in Milwaukee, Wis., is a Queen's graduate.
